October 10 - 13, 2017

2017

This year's conference starts a day earlier - Tuesday Oct. 10th.

CALL FOR PARTICIPATION

We invite you to submit proposals for traditional presentations, or you can organize specialty-themed sessions, discussion panels, workshops, and fieldtrips. We encourage submission of ideas and themes dealing with all matters of cartography.

For all meeting details, links to content rules, travel grant applications (for students and professionals), and much more, visit nacis.org/2017 or email veep@nacis.org

CONFERENCE SUBMISSIONS

Visit nacis.org/2017 to submit an abstract by May 31, 2017 for the Main Conference, Practical Cartography Day (PCD), or Geographic Data Collections Day (GDCCD).

- MAIN CONFERENCE

Share your cartographic accomplishments and research with the nacis community. Be sure to examine the nacis.org/2017 page for specific guidelines when writing and submitting your abstract.

Questions about presenting during the main conference? Email veep@nacis.org

- PRACTICAL CARTOGRAPHY DAY

Join professional cartographers and scholars for this all-day event focused on making maps in all formats. New design ideas, web mapping tips, and more!

Questions about PCD? Email pdc@nacis.org

- GEOGRAPHIC DATA COLLECTIONS DAY

This all-day event focuses on cartographic and geographic data collections in libraries, archives, and museums. Questions about GDCCD? Email gdcd@nacis.org

NACIS NEEDS YOUR PARTICIPATION!

The NACIS conference happens because of you! Please consider one of the many ways that you can participate to help create a wonderful conference experience for everyone.

- MAP GALLERY

Show off your best cartographic designs, experimental techniques, or research.

- STUDENT MAP & POSTER AND STUDENT DYNAMIC MAP COMPETITIONS

Cash prizes of $500 for the best print and digital maps as well as research.

- FIELDTRIPS

Organize and lead a field trip exploring a physical or cultural aspect of Montréal.
